Date: 20170223

Docket: T-201-17

Citation: 2017 FC 227

Fredericton, New Brunswick, February 23, 2017

PRESENT: The Honourable Joseph T. Robertson
Deputy Judge of the Federal Court

BETWEEN:

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICE ROBIN CAMP

Applicant

and

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF CANADA

Respondent

ORDER

UPON MOTION by the Applicant, the Honourable Robin Camp, filed February 21, 2017, for:

- (a) An order staying the deliberations and decision-making of the Canadian Judicial Council [CJC] regarding Justice Camp, pending full and final determination of the Applicant's application for judicial review; and
- (b) Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just;

CONSIDERING the Notice of Motion, the affidavit of Fiona Clarke sworn February 21, 2017 and the exhibits thereto, and the written representations of the Applicant;

CONSIDERING the written representations of the Respondent, who opposes the relief sought;

CONSIDERING the oral submissions of counsel heard at the hearing of this motion on February 23, 2017;

CONSIDERING the urgency of this motion, reasons will follow;

THIS COURT ORDERS that:

1. The motion to stay the deliberations and decision-making of the Canadian Judicial Council, pending full determination of the Applicant's Application for Judicial Review, is dismissed.
2. No costs are awarded.

"Joseph T. Robertson"

Deputy Judge
